Dear Miss Parlow:

Thank you for your kind note of the 9th instant which I feel is quite undeserved.

You have personally made a great contribution for many years, which I have not hesitated to put on record before Parliamentary Committees and also the recent Fowler Royal Commission.

My wife and I are sorry that you can not be present on the 11th. I will be sincerely grateful when the celebration is over.

Yours sincerely,

WMM/hn

Dear Miss Taylor:

Thank you for your kind note of the 21st.
Instant which I feel is much appreciated.

I have personally made a great contribution for many years, which I have not mentioned to you on record before. I am very glad to hear and also the record for the Royal Commission.

My wife and I are sorry that you can not be present on the 11th. I will be sincerely grateful when the celebration is over.

Yours sincerely,

MISS KATHLEEN TAYLOR - 33 SUSSEX AVE. - TORONTO, ONT.
